

Our expanding, multi-disciplinary, small animal referral practice requires an additional ophthalmologist to join David Gould DipECVO and Kerry Smith CertVOphthal.

Candidates should be personable and enthusiastic with a good team approach, keen to develop their diagnostic and surgical skills. Ideally, candidates should have passed or be eligible for the RCVS Certificate in Veterinary Ophthalmology or similar and be keen to progress to ECVO Diplomate status.

CPD is encouraged and supported, and training in intraocular microsurgery will be given where appropriate. Academic and non-clinical activity is encouraged and supported.

An attractive and competitive remuneration package is offered including bonus payments, CPD allowance, pension and private health insurance.

Applications supported by a current CV should be sent to M A Thomas FCA at the address below.
